

A Charter for a sustainable development

Our charter states that we must join together to care for a sustainable development. It provides guidelines for our responsibilities as students, giving guidelines about how we, students, should behave and what we, students, must do.

1. We, students, must:

1. switch off the light in the classrooms after the class, in the toilets, and in the cloakrooms;
2. switch off the computers and the screens and we mustn't leave them in a sleep mode;
3. recycle the paper, the aluminium, and the PET.

2. We, students, should:

1. eat less fast food and less meat;
2. organize a day without meat;
3. choose the food that is produced in our region;
4. drink water instead of soda;
5. prepare our meals ourselves.

3. You, teachers, should:

1. turn off the light in the classrooms after the class, in the toilets, and the cloakrooms;
2. turn off the computers and the screens. you should not leave them in a sleep mode;
3. put the blinds up so that we don't need to turn on the light;
4. open the windows no longer than 5 minutes in order to save energy;
5. turn off the beamer if it is not used for 5 minutes;
6. print and copy on both sides of the paper.

3. We, students and teachers, must:

1. turn off the light when we don't need it;
2. journey on foot, by bike, or by bus;
3. separate the rubbish for recycling;
4. unplug our chargers as soon as the device is charged up.
